MT AIRY
(Near Suches, Ga.)

Mt. Airy Baptist Church and Cemetery

The Mt. Airy Cemetery is in Canada District. From the Old Court House Square in Blairsville, it is 11 miles south on US 129 then southwest 11 miles on GA 180 then about 1 mile south on GA 60 then 3 miles west on FS 42 then north about 1 mile near Homer Gooch old homeplace. There are 55 graves with inscribed headstones with legible names and dates and 47 unmarked graves with no identification other than field stones at head and foot of grave. The oldest grave that has a legible inscription is that of Sarah Marr who died in 1877.

The Mt. Airy Baptist Church was reorganized after the Civil War years and established during 1867. Probably the first pastor was a Mr. Hyde according to the older generation. Records indicate that several men wanted to settle down and get back into a regular church after many years of Civil War turmoil and unrest and on Oct. 4, 1867 many in the community gathered to discuss and reorganize a church which has been active for 122 years. J. M. Blackwell was their first pastor with M. M. Roberts as an assistant. The first two deacons were L.L. Wehunt and M. B. Brookshire. One month later, Nov. 2, 1867, they elected the following delegates to the Chestatee Association: M. Brookshir, E. Postell, A. J. Presley, and J. T. Cochran. James Gooch and wife joined Sept.

Dear Member,

Greetings again from Macon, Ga. I have both good news and sad news. We now have 15 grandchildren. Daughter Beth D. Woods, delivered her 2nd boy May 9. Beth, husband John and boys live in Durham, NC. Also on May 9th, wife Elsie's cousin Wanda (Gooch) Avila died of gunshot wounds, at the hands of her husband. (Memorial elsewhere in this issue.)

Thanks to all of you who have contributed to TGF and continue with your interest. Several members have re-subscribed for volume 2 after receiving issue 3. To the right of your name on the envelope will be either, Jul'92 or Jul'93. For those with Jul'92 this is your last issue. If this is your case, I hope you will consider renewal. Please let me know if I am in error. I am operating in the red with well under 100 paid subscribers. There will be a subscription order form in each mailing. If you do not need it, pass it along to someone else.

Material keeps coming, and I thank all for their valuable contributions. One note though. I have a bit of a problem printing material that is copied directly from a publication. I need, title volume, author etc. in addition to name and address of contributor. I would prefer you extract the needed material and give it to me in the form you want it printed. You still need to give your source to make it creditable. Please use black print on white paper. My copier will handle very light colored paper, but not the dark.

The cover picture of Mt. Airy Church, is as it looks today. It is on Mt. Airy road near Suches, Ga. The parcel of land it occupies was once Jim Gooch property and is now surrounded by land that is (was) the Homer Gooch Estate. Homer's wife 'Mabel' and two sons Ervin and Tom still live and farm there. Homer donated the land on which the Gooch Reunion is held each 4th Sunday in July. If the reunion is discontinued, the land reverts to Homer's estate. If you should go to Mt. Airy Church or to the Gooch reunion you do not have to start at Blairsville. If one is travelling from the south, take US 19 north out of Dahlonaga, then GA 60 across Woody's Gap. Take the first left at Tritt's store. Then a mile or so to Mt. Airy road. The Gooch reunion grounds is on the right just before you reach Mt. Airy Church.

The 1920 Federal Census is out, and should be available on microfilm in most genealogical libraries very soon. If you are a census researcher, and would like to send your state, I would be happy to receive it. It might be good to check with me before sending your state. I have Georgia's thanks to Kenneth Gilreath, a descendant of Rossa E. Gooch X William S. Blackwell.

I have just a bit of progress on Vol. 2, Issue 1. The cover will have Wm Bill Gooch (oldest of Jim and Elvira's children) and wife Rachel. That picture was furnished by Ervin Gooch who made me a copy of the original.

After issue three was in the mail, my curiosity about old house sites led me to request my Mother-in-Law, Zura (Gooch) Todd to return to Todd's Farm. She, on the day after her 87th birthday, trudged the half-mile each way to reach the upper end of the property; pointing out three old house sites. The Bartow house site is located in the upper end of the last field near where Knight branch crosses the road. Only a pile of rocks which formed the chimney, remains. The second Jim Gooch house was located down stream and on the opposite side of Knight branch near an old mulberry tree. Across Knight branch from the site is an old sawdust pile; remains of a sawmill that operated on Todd's Farm during the war years (WW II) cutting white oak on US Forest Service land for staves to make barrels. Mr. Todd obtained cull pieces, which he had milled into flooring used in their new house built in 1949. Mrs. Todd also identified the house site where her parents lived and she was born. A video of the occasion which included several family members, a picnic and talk of old times made it very memorable.

If you have a video camera (camcorder) I hope you are using it to record things that could someday be forgotten or lost. Our family started using it after we have gotten scattered, to try to keep in visual touch, as well as using phone and letters. Don't forget to save voice recordings, of children as well as grown-up's. They become very valuable, sometimes sooner than you think. Enough for now. Thanks. Cecil Daniels, Editor

Dear Cecil,

Thanks for sending THE GOOCH FAMILY. I mailed in my subscription when I discovered your ad in the HELPER. Enclosed is a group sheet for my earliest GOOCH ancestor - Thomas GOOCH (c1766-1854), my 4th gt.gdf. He is "Thomas Gooch, Jr." on the Campbell Co., Va., marriage bond. Question: who are his parents?

I am quite interested in learning of the descendents of WILLIAM GOOCH of Louisa Co., Va. Perhaps others on your subscription list would be interested as well. His Will is included on a separate sheet. This Will states that ROWLAND GOOCH is his father. Next question - who is the father of this ROWLAND?

This WILLIAM GOOCH (17??-1780), m. 16 Feb 1769, Goochland Co., Va. to Luvinah CLEMENTS. Luvinah (Clements) GOOCH, md. (2) 9 Dec 1783, Louisa Co., Va., to John FLEEMAN. issue (three daus as named in will):

1. Sally GOOCH, b. 19 Feb 1769/70, Goochland Co., Va.
2. Jamimah GOOCH, b. 29 Dec 1773, Goochland CO., Va.
m. 23 dec 1802, Louisa Co., Va.
JASPER GRINSTEAD
3. Mary GOOCH, b. (1774?), North Carolina ?
m. 27 Feb 1792, Louisa Co., Va.
JAMES TURNER

Of the above ROWLAND GOOCH. I believe that he is the ROWLAND who married Unity WEST. Can anyone offer proof for such?

ROWLAND GOOCH

Query No. 31.

I know there were GOOCHES in G. WASHINGTON'S Army; Lawrence WASHINGTON, I UNDERSTAND was married to a Martha GOOCH, and there is a collateral connection through G. Washington's wife. He married the widow, Martha DANDRIDGE CUSTIS. Send me what you have on this idea of GOOCH/WASHINGTON connection and I will print it in a future issue. I will try to find time to look also. Much material will be in the regular history sections of libraries, as well as genealogy.

Query No. 32.

To all members who have not sent me your GOOCH LINE, ex: your father grandfather and so forth as far back as you can. If it is a female connection send that. For the ones who go back two or three generations may have only one name, maybe that of a great grandmother. If that is your case, you need to work on locating a family in which that person belongs. Bits and Pieces

Susanna Bonner Lee was the dtr. of Lodowick and Sarah Clement Lee.
 She was born on August 20, 1817, in Petersburg Va.
 Susanna lived as a young child in Petersburg,
 then later, in Prince George County. Her uncle, Thomas Lee, became her step-father when she was thirteen and at that time she went to Amherst County to live. Susanna married
 Albert Gallatin Gooch, by 1840. At this time, Susanna's stepfather and guardian turned her share of her father's slaves over to her husband, Albert. Susanna and Albert lived in Amherst County and had a son Thomas A. Gooch. He married Florence Sandridge, his half first cousin, the daughter of Mary Elizabeth Lee and Valentine Sandridge.
 Susanna Gooch died in 1904, and was buried in the Old Presbyterian Cemetery, on Grace Street, in Lynchburg.

EARLY BURIAL CUSTOMS

Early settlers did most everything for themselves, particularly when they buried their dead and conducted their funerals. They acted as their own morticians and dug their own graves. They were hand dug and always east to west 8 foot long and 4 foot wide with a 6 foot by 3 foot vault in the bottom to contain the box and coffin. When a person in the community died neighbors and friends "laid out" the deceased. This laying out procedure consisted of bathing the corpse, dressing it and laying it out on a board or table covered with a sheet until time for burial.

Sometimes humorous situations arose out of the occasions which otherwise were very solemn. On one occasion a man was alerted by his neighbor's children one morning with the news that their grandfather had died. They requested help in the laying out procedure. He expressed his sympathy and agreed to help. After all he was long time neighbor and friend of the deceased. He went to the neighbor's house as soon as he could and found all the family in mourning and in preparation for the funeral. Some were seeing about getting the grave dug and a coffin made, others were notifying relatives and getting a preacher for the services. When he went into the back room, he lifted the covers gently and the supposedly deceased opened his eyes. He smiled and said "Hidy John." Needless to say, all were happy and had a joyous exchange of greetings and funeral preparations were stopped.

In most neighborhoods there were at least one good carpenter who made the coffins for those who died in the community. Then there were those who would see to having the grave dug in the proper place and manner. There was one case where the grave was dug in the church cemetery, only to learn when reading his will, he wanted to be buried behind his house beside his two favorite hunting dogs. Of course his wish was granted, the first grave filled in and a fresh one dug behind his house.

In the usual case, the corpse remained "laid out" and on display in the home over a period of two days before burial. This was to allow enough time for all the necessary funeral preparation and to allow distant relatives to attend if they could. During this time, neighbors brought food and stayed with the family so that someone other than family was always in attendance. For the nights, there was a "setting up" by friends and neighbors so that the family could sleep secure and that the light would not be out before dawn. Usually on the morning of the third day, the corpse would be placed in the completed coffin and loaded onto a farm wagon. The funeral procession would then commence to the place of the funeral and burial. A minimum of 1 hour funeral was preached sometimes as many as three preachers having their individual and overlapping exhortations on the virtues of the deceased. All during the funeral the coffin was open and custom was that before the funeral proper, friends and neighbors would pass by for their last look. After the funeral, the family would gather at the coffin for one last look, after which the coffin was closed and carried to the grave site. The congregation and family followed. Then there was a further but brief ceremony at the grave. Then the coffin was placed in the wooden box designed to fit in the vault section of the grave. The box cover was fixed in place with wood screws. The use of hammer and nails for this purpose was considered irreverent and improper. Six men, three on each side lowered the box containing the coffin into the grave with three lengths of leather harness lines slipped under the ends and middle of the box. A 1 inch board was placed at each end of the grave to allow clearance to remove the harness lines once the box was in place. After this, boards sawn and fitted for the purpose, were laid over the top of the box and vault section of the grave. Friend and neighbors would take turns shoveling the dirt back into the grave from which it came and mounding it up.

A large field stone was placed at the head and a small one at the foot. In some cases, this was the only marking a grave would ever have, making future identification impossible. Some would chisel initials in the head stone, or carve a headstone from soapstone. Or, in some cases build a wooden roofed grave house. Soapstone was used in the early 1900's until marble became available. Wooden, field stone, and soapstone would deteriorate with time.

and weathering to a point where inscriptions are no longer legible. Another hazard to soapstone other than the weathering, was school children. During the early times when school was held in the church building, children would chip off pieces of soapstone to use as chalk to write on their slate.
